

Accessing Feedback Rubrics

I am using rubrics and a minimum of comments to encourage your autonomy. I have provided examples of things that can go well and not so well in a genre (sometimes within the same document), and I encourage you to use those and rubrics as guides for your own revisions.

To access the feedback rubric filled out by me, please do the following:

1. Go to the assignment you want feedback on and click Submission Details,

- No-submit & Argument

Below the 'Progress Report 3' section, there is a list of submissions. The first submission is 'Annotated Bibliography--Seewell--Literary-1.docx' (27 KB). To its right, there is a 'View Feedback' link and a button that says 'Provide your submission and feedback for feedback, if available'. Below this, there is a 'Add a Comment' section with a text input field, a 'Media Comment' button, an 'Attach File' button, and a 'Save' button.

A red arrow points from the 'No-submit & Argument' button in the 'Progress Report 3' section to the 'Late penalty: -40' text in the 'Submission Details' section.

2. Click on "Show Rubric."
